

The Godhead

The assumption concerning the Godhead has caused revulsion among Bible readers. This aversion is very detrimental to God's kingdom, when anybody assumes there are three persons in the Godhead. The bible does not teach even one of anything in the Godhead. The Bible says the Godhead is in Jesus Christ. Col. 2:9 "For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily."

Now what does the Godhead consist of? The Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. These are titles not persons. Holy Ghost is not a person but a spirit. Where can we find the Holy Ghost? Luke 4:1 "And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost..." So the Holy Ghost is not a person but a spirit. Let's find the Father. John 14:10 "...the words I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, He doeth the works. So you see Father, Son and Holy Ghost are titles and all these titles are in Jesus Christ.

Some say, I believe there is but one God, but that God is divided into three substances. Now you cannot divide God into a substance. I will explain later. If you could, you would have three one-third Gods. Back to God being a substance. First, God is not a substance. What is a substance? Substance is element. What is element; any part of the four elements, which is earth, air, fire and water. These constitute all living matter. God is none of these substances or elements. Substance is a product and God is not a product, neither was God created, God is the Creator. John 4:24 "God is a spirit..." So God is not an element or a substance, thus making it impossible to divide God into something which He is no part of. God is one, not two or three. God has an indictment against people who try to put two or three Gods in Heaven. Exodus 20:3 "Thou shalt have no other Gods before me."

If Jesus Christ is not the Almighty God, the apostles are liars and the Bible is fake. Thomas called Jesus, God. John 20:28 "...my Lord and my God." After Thomas got his eyes opened, he saw that Jesus was the Almighty God. When you get your eyes opened, you will also see that Jesus Christ is the Almighty God. Paul says in Eph. 4:5 "One Lord ..." Rev. 1:8 John says Jesus Christ is the Almighty God. Jesus Christ, before He was born, did not pre-exist as a son but as a spirit. When the spirit, which is the Mighty God and the Father, became born of the flesh this made the Father become a son. Read Isaiah 9:6 "The Father of this son is in that flesh which was born of the Virgin Mary." Jesus says in John 10:30 "I and my Father are one (the same)." If Jesus Christ is not the Father, which people say is another God (or substance), then I'd be afraid to trust in what He says. John 14:9 "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." Verse 10 "I am in the Father and the Father is in me." If these verses don't open your eyes, God have mercy on you. John 8:24 "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins." Who is Jesus

Bis. W. E. Smith

Christ according to the Bible? Isaiah 9:6 "...a child, a son, the Mighty God, the everlasting Father." You can see these titles the Bible gives Him in the Godhead. Jesus Christ is everyone to these titles. So please don't even try to divide our God into substances or elements. Just leave Him as He is, one God.

The devil has deceived you to believe in two or three Gods. Even the devil does not believe trinity doctrine. James 2:19 "Thou believest that there in One God: Thou doest well: (you may want to do well) the devils also believe, and tremble." The devil knows Jesus Christ is the Almighty God. Will you please quit trying to put Jesus Christ in the Godhead as the second person in the Godhead, but the Godhead is in Him. Trying to put Jesus Christ into the Godhead is like trying to run the figure five into four which you know is impossible. There is not enough room in four for five. So likewise, there is not room enough in the Godhead for Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the Father, Son and the Holy Ghost. Col. 2:9 "For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily." So please, don't try to separate or divide the Godhead, for God is a spirit not a product. Please consider this before it is too late.
